

Dear Business Leader and Interested Vendor,

We're excited to inform you of the opportunity to participate as an annual sponsor of the Alabama Municipal Revenue Officers Association (AMROA). Founded in 1972, we are an association of municipal employees responsible for the collection, enforcement, and/or administration of the tax revenues of municipalities. AMROA promotes professional development of municipal employees helping them to become more effective and efficient. AMROA membership currently consists of over 250 municipal employees from across Alabama. AMROA members are from the smallest towns to the largest cities in the state, representing more than 100 different municipalities. AMROA members have titles and roles ranging from revenue officer, city clerk, finance director, revenue manager, treasurer, license inspector, auditor, to magistrates. The common element is that all members are responsible for the administration, collection, or enforcement of municipal revenues (sales and use tax, business licenses, rental tax, utilities, etc.).

This program features three levels of sponsorship and each level includes space on the Association's website (www.amroa.org) under the "Marketplace" link. AMROA sponsors two conferences each year; the Winter Conference and the Summer Conference. The winter conference occurs in December each year in cooperation with the Center of Governmental Services at Auburn University. The summer conference, which is held in partnership with the University of Alabama, changes location each year.

Please, review the attached summary of benefits, choose your level and become an AMROA sponsor today! Sponsorships are good for one year and will be the only way to ensure your company is represented during AMROA events.

Sincerely,

Gwen Hall
AMROA President
